She has less than ten years qualifying service and she is not entitled to any kind of pension or gratuity under the rules. If it is considered desirable to ask her not to rejoin service, the only course open is to abolish her appointment and give her a compensation gratuity. This course is not possible, as it has been proposed to continue her place of Inspectress of Girls' Schools and also create another place of an Inspectress.

To

The Inspector General of Education in Mysore
Bangalore City, S. India.

31-8-1922.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your cable of 16-8-22, I have the honour to inform you that I was extremely surprised to receive an intimation that you were considering terminating the period of my service under the Mysore Government at an early date and especially so as the intimation reached me so late in my leave. As I was naturally expecting to return to duty at the expiration thereof I have spent a very considerable amount of both time and money in visiting the chief Educational centres in this country in order to be able to bring to Educational matters in the Mysore State the highest and most up-to-date methods prevalent in the British Isles. I am able and willing to devote another ten or twelve years of my energy and ability to the above mentioned service and feel sure that upon further consideration you will recognize that under the rather exceptional circumstances something more is due to me than the small sum offered upon which it is not possible to live in this country.

I may point out the great difficulty of obtaining other employment in this country especially after so long residence in India and the fact that the proposed termination of my engagement has come upon me so suddenly. I trust that you will either be able to increase the proposed pension pension to £100 per annum or grant me by way of compensation a lump sum in addition to £80 (eighty) of say £ 500 to tide me over a certain period of unemployment and as some recompense for dispensing with my services without notice and reimbursement for time and money spent during leave in endeavouring to better fit myself for my position and return to duty.

On the above conditions I am willing to accept immediate retirement after leave and feel sure on due consideration of the details before mentioned you will agree that the conditions are just and reasonable and such as would be expected from the Government of so great a State and I await your cable of agreement with perfect confidence in your well known justice and integrity.

I have the honour to be.

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Submitted to His Highness.

In accordance with His Highness' orders communicated in the Private Secretary's D.O.letter No.89 of the 11th August 1922, Miss Park was informed that she would be given a pension of £80 a year if she agreed to retire at once. She has since made a representation through the Inspector General of Education to the effect that this would be inadequate and requesting that in view of the great difficulty in obtaining other employment in England and of the sudden termination of her engagement, the proposed pension might either be increased to £100 per annum or that she might be given by way of compensation a sum of £500 in addition to the pension of £80 per annum.

2. The question was considered in Council on the 17th instant when the following resolution was recorded:-

"Miss Park may be retired on an arbitrary pension "of £100 per annum."

3. The above recommendation which is financially more advantageous to the State than the other alternative asked for, may be graciously approved.
